VANCOUVER (December 13, 2005) - W3 International Media Ltd. was awarded the Gold Consumers' Choice Award as the 2005-2006 winner among providers of Internet Solutions services in Vancouver, British Columbia at a Gala ceremony this evening.

"This is very exciting as this is our second year receiving the Gold award. We thank the consumers for this recognition; it means a lot to everyone in our team at W3 Media to hear such positive response to our work from the Consumer" said Myfanwy Wong, General Manager of W3 Media. "This is truly an honour, as we continue to build our business based on excellent service, long-term relationships with consumers and commitment to the community."

The Consumers' Choice Award is presented annually by the Consumers' Choice Institute (Canada). Leger Marketing, a member of Gallup International Association conducted the research by interviewing consumers and top ranking managers of small and medium-sized businesses in the Greater Vancouver area.

The Consumers' Choice Awards Gala and ceremony was held at the Westin Bay Shore Hotel & Resort this evening. The Consumers' Choice Awards Vancouver gala is scheduled for television broadcast on Sunday February 26th, 2006 on Global Television-BCTV.
